Course Of Action

4.

Event managers responsible for 4-H events and activities are encouraged to communicate to 4-H participants and adult chaperones prior to the event a standard of acceptable behavior, via the Commitment to Excellence. Standards of behavior and consequences should be reviewed with participants as part of the initial orientation.

- Event Manager obtains all the relevant facts. 1. 2.
- Brief the on-site adult responsible for the youth delegate (Extension faculty member or 4-H volunteer). 3.
  - If not on-site, but available via phone, brief the county Extension faculty member and District Extension Administrator responsible.
  - Review consequences of misbehavior. The following steps should be taken when sending a 4-H member home:
  - Extension faculty member contacts parents.
  - Parents advised that child is being sent home by safest, most direct means, and that parents are responsible for cost.
  - Event manager decides if parents should be given the option of picking up the child.
  - County Extension faculty member collects money from parent to pay transportation charges.
  - Follow-up correspondence from event's manager to appropriate county Extension faculty member, District 4-H Leadership Team, child and parent for documentation.
- For all reprimands a Summary Letter and Accident/Incident Report Form will be completed and mailed to the 4-H member, parent, County Extension Agents, 5. District Extension Administrator, County Extension Directors (if applicable), 4-H Specialist, Texas 4-H Program Director and the Associate Directors for 4-H, Youth and Human Sciences and County Programs. Additionally, notification will be made to District 4-H Leadership Team prior to letter and form being mailed.

During my 4-H involvement...

CODE OF CONDUCT

- I am expected to attend all sessions that are part of the planned program for all activities. I will inform staff if I am not feeling well or have a schedule conflict. 2.
