

CLASS # 3

Wireless Portable Speakers

Heather likes to listen to music from her phone while she does homework in her bedroom and when she drives her 2008 Dodge pickup. She will be graduating soon and attending college. She wants a speaker that will work in her pickup and her dorm room.

Her previous portable speaker required a cord with an audio plug, but it doesn't work with new iPhone she got for her birthday. She needs a speaker with blue-tooth capability and one with the longest battery life. She also wants a speaker that will be compatible with her computer. Heather has a total of $60 to spend.
